At Clark Botanic Garden, Albertson, NY

Join us at Clark Botanic Garden on Sunday, from 1 PM to 3 PM at Clark House for an interesting and informative presentation on land conservation efforts on Long Island.

This presentation is $15 per person.

Sunday, June 22, 2025- Protecting Land and Connecting People to Nature with Jane Jackson, Director of Stewardship at the North Shore Land Alliance

John Humes Stroll Garden

Red Cote Preserve

Tiffany Creek Preserve

North Shore Land Alliance Director of Stewardship Jane Jackson will introduce the audience to the Land Alliance's land conservation efforts and programs in western Long Island over the organization's first two decades. Founded in 2003, NSLA is an accredited land trust that has been instrumental in working together with land owners, municipalities, and government agencies to protect over 1500 acres of conservation-worthy lands in our community.

Mission of NSLA: Conserving and Stewarding Long Island's natural and historic lands, waters and environmental resources through education, and outreach volunteerism to inspire a community conservation ethic.
